Enter randomly generated dungeons as you Build, Upgrade, and Defend your home from constant waves of Zombies.

Don't Bite Me Bro! + includes the Bearman Land DLC Expansion Pack, featuring all New Survivors, a New Dungeon, and Bearman Land Theme Park, ready for exploration!

Features

- Don't Bite Me Bro features hours of single-player and local multi-player game play inspired by the games that we grew up playing.
- Enjoy endless fun either on your own or with up to three of your best zombie-slaying buds.
- Don't Bite Me Bro's bright and playful 3D aesthetic gives it the feeling of playing within a zombie-infested toy chest.
- Start humanity from scratch as you gather resources, build your safe zone, and fortify it with both defensive and offensive upgrades.
- Defend your base and its inhabitants from endless waves of the undead.

- Explore a ruined town, deserted woods, a murky swamp, an overrun city and more memorable biomes.
  - Conquer terrifying randomly generated dungeons with menacing Bosses on your quest to end the apocalypse.
  - Barter with the mysterious traveling merchant to acquire additional resources, weapons, and power-ups.
  - Collect an arsenal of weapons and a fleet of versatile vehicles.
  - ‘Man’s best friend’ doesn’t apply to the undead. Rescue your very own canine companion.
  - Harvest corn. Everybody loves corn.

DLC built into the UI. must have grown up playing EA titles. The DLC feels like it should be part of the main game as its not adding a feature but just much needed content. I would say unless you get this as a all-in-1 pack don't buy. Game is worth $5 tops even with all DLC. Only fun with friends as its very wonky controls and just silly zombie defence local coop only. Fun with some beers.
